ELIGIBILITY AND APPLICATION PROCEDURES

- 1) The competition is open to young pianists of all nationalities.
- 2) Age limit as of 1st January 2015:
Minimum 18 years old, maximum 30 years old.
- 3) Contestants who have participated in previous Maria Canals Competitions may compete again, unless they have already been awarded the first prize in this branch.
- 4) Required registration documents:
  - a) The registration form, duly filled in and signed
  - b) A photocopy of the contestant's identity card or passport
  - c) A detailed "Curriculum Vitae"
  - d) A chronological listing of previous and present teachers
  - e) Contestants may send a DVD recording using a fixed camera with no postproduction handling and with a maximum duration of 20 minutes, including one fast movement of a Beethoven sonata and a freely chosen work. The recording must be clearly and visibly labelled showing the chosen repertoire and the contestant's name (recommended option).
  - f) One recent photograph (passport size) on paper
  - g) The programme form, duly filled in and signed

Contestants who have previously been finalists and prize-winners at a competition organised by a member of the World Federation of International Music Competitions will be automatically accepted to participate in the first round. They must, however, send in all other documents, including one that proves they have received this prize.

The registration and programme forms (filled out in block letters or typed) and the rest of the documentation have to be sent by post to: Concurs Internacional de Música Maria Canals de Barcelona, Palau de la Música Catalana, c/ Palau de la Música, 4-6, 08003 Barcelona (Catalonia - Spain). The deadline is Saturday, 20th of December 2014, only the postmark will be valid.

Contestants will not be allowed to make any changes to their programme after Tuesday, 20th of January 2015.

5) Pre-selection

In principle, there is no limit to the number of contestants accepted in the competition.

The shortlist will be drawn up by a commission chaired by the artistic director.

Contestants will be notified whether or not they have been accepted to participate in the competition once the commission has made its decision or at the very latest on 20th of January 2015.

6) Chosen contestants must pay a registration fee of 165 Euros within 10 days of being notified of their acceptance. No contestant will be accepted for participation unless this requirement is fulfilled. Registration fees will not be refunded under any circumstances. Documents and photographs are also refundable.

The registration fee must be transferred to:

Concurso Internacional de Música

IBAN: ES1100810057300001427051
SWIFT: BSABESBB

All bank charges relating to the international transfer are to be paid by the contestants.

THE JURY

7) Members of the jury will not be advised of the contestant's personal details (or of the names of the contestant's teachers) until the final has taken place and the final verdict is known.

8) No pupil or relative of a member of the jury may take part in the competition. In the event of an irregularity, the contestant will be automatically disqualified from the competition.

9) The members of the jury will not change during the rounds.

10) Contestants who have been eliminated in the first or second rounds may speak to any of the members of the jury in the morning of 23rd of March 2015, if they wish to do so.

11) All decisions of the jury are definitive.

FIRST GENERAL MEETING

12) If a contestant admitted to the competition decides not to participate, he/she has to notify it to the organization in advance.

13) The contestant must attend the first general meeting at the given date, time and place, except in the event of force majeure, duly proved. Any delay must be certified by a medical certificate or by a certificate issued by a transport company or organism, certifying that the delay was beyond the contestant's control (due to strikes, technical delays, etc.) or for any other reason which is accepted by the organization. Otherwise, the contestant will not be allowed to participate in the various rounds of the competition.

14) At the first general meeting, contestants will have to present an official document (passport or ID card) confirming their age and nationality. They must also provide the competition organizers with the address and a contact telephone number in Barcelona. The organizers decline any responsibility for damages which could arise to contestants if these requirements are not fulfilled.

15) There will be a draw at the first general meeting and contestants will be assigned a number for the order of their participation in the following rounds. The 61st competition's draw will commence with the letter A.

16) The timetable for the first round and for testing the piano in the hall where the rounds will be held will be made known to the contestants the first general meeting day.

17) The first general meeting day all contestants will be notified of the practice location during their stay in Barcelona while taking part in the competition. The organization will not offer more pianos to those contestants who without notification or justification, do not report to the designated time and place established by the organization.

18) Any contestant failing to arrive on time for any round or the final and who is unable to justify this delay will be excluded from the competition.

19) All works must be performed by memory. All works must be performed without repeats (except in the semi-final).

20) The president of the jury may interrupt any execution which exceeds the stipulated time established for each round.

21) Points will range from 1 (minimum) to 10 (maximum). The following fractions are admitted: 0.25; 0.50; 0.75. The resulting averages for each round will only be calculated to two decimal points.

22) Any violation of the competition rules and regulations by the contestant will result in his/her elimination.

23) All stages of the competition are open to the general public but the president of the jury may clear the hall in the event of exaggerated or untimely demonstrations. Should this occur, the hearing would continue in private.

24) The competition organizers reserve the right to refuse admission and the right to sell entrance tickets to the public.

25) The competition owns the rights pertaining to the recording or broadcasting by radio, internet or television of the rounds, the winners' concert and other competition concerts and related events. The rights for recording one or several CDs or DVDs may be commercialized and ceded, freely, exclusively and without any limitation of these rights in favour of any person or entity. This transmission of the rights will be free of charge.

26) Any data sent in by the contestants during registration, or that may be generated during the follow-up of their activities, will be included in the competition's association database. This information will not be used for any purpose other than that related to the publicity of the competition, the contestants, or other activities. The competition organizers are authorized to use this data to publicize the competition and the contestants both during and after the competition.

FIRST ROUND

27) A minimum average of 7 points is required to proceed to the second round. At the conclusion of the judging of the first round, a list of contestants who have obtained this minimum average will be posted. In the event that more than 18 contestants should obtain the minimum average of 7, only the first 18 ranking contestants will proceed to the second round.

28) Contestants who have obtained 7 points or more, but have not proceeded to the second round, may receive a certificate stating the number of points obtained upon request to the competition organizers immediately following to the publication of the results. Certificates may be picked up at the secretariat during the competition only. Under no circumstances will certificates be forwarded to contestants at a later date.

SECOND ROUND

29) A minimum average of 8 points is required to proceed to the semi-final.

30) The general average of each contestant after the Second Round is obtained from the average between the marks obtained in the First Round, from which 10% will be deducted, and those obtained in the Second Round to which 10% will be added.

31) The jury will not accept more than six contestants for the semi-final.

32) The list of contestants proceeding to the semi-final and the list of winners of medals and certificates (honors) will be announced at an awards ceremony which will take place immediately after the jury's deliberation. Contestants have to attend personally in order to receive Medals and certificates.

33) Upon request, the competition organizers will issue certificates showing the points obtained to all those contestants who have taken part in the second round without having received any award, if they request it after to the publication of the results. Under no circumstances will certificates be forwarded to contestants at a later date.

SEMI-FINAL

34) The number of points for proceeding to the final will be the average of the points obtained after the Second Round, from which 10% will be deducted, and those obtained in the Semifinal to which 10% will be added.

35) The jury will not accept more than three contestants for the final.

36) Contestants participating in the semi-final not selected for the final will obtain a medal and a diploma as semi-finalists of the competition.

37) The list of semi-finalists proceeding to the final will be announced after the jury has made its decision. Semi-finalists not selected for the final must go personally to receive their medals of honor and certificates at the Closing and Prize-Giving Ceremony, which will take place the day after the final, and will be offered the chance to play in an Off Competition recital.

THE FINAL

38) The number of points required to decide the order of the winners of the competition will be the average resulting from the addition of the points obtained after the semi-final and the points obtained in the final.

39) The First, Second and Third Prizes cannot be shared.

40) Winners of the main prizes and the finalist receiving the most votes from the public will be announced following the jury's decision, immediately after the final and in the presence of the audience.

41) The order of participation in the final will be, in principle, based on the contestant's number. The order of participation may be changed if there are repeated concerts in the final or on request of the Orchestra Conductor.

42) Prize-winners are obliged to attend the official awards ceremony personally in order to receive their prizes (main prizes, special prizes and/or concert prizes).

43) The artistic director will decide which participant among the prize-winning contestants who will take part in the Closing Ceremony. These prize-winners are obliged to take part in this recitals without any compensation. The Artistic Director will also choose the piece or pieces to be played. These pieces will be chosen among those presented at the Competition.

44) If an awarded contestant is absent at the official awards ceremony and other competition events (if he/she is designated to participate) then he/she will automatically lose all prizes and benefits possibly associated with them, except in the event of illness, at which medical proof is required.

45) Contestants who have been chosen to perform at one of the concerts offered by the competition will have to accept all conditions – financial, dates, repertoire – established by the promoters, which have previously been agreed upon with the competition organizers. Should these conditions not be met, the contestant will not be allowed to perform. In the case that the agreements are unfulfilled prior to the competition, the competition will not be liable.

46) By signing the registration form, the applicant agrees that he/she has read, understood and accepts all the rules and regulations of the competition.
